WILL OF J. B. NAUGLE, DEC'D.

NO. 3888

I, J. B. Naugle, being of sound mind and memory and over the age of 21 years, and desiring to dispose of my worldly effects, do make, publish and declare this as my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any former Wills or Codicils by me made.

Item 1. I direct that upon my death that I be decently, but not expensively buried, that a suitable marker be placed at my grave.

Item 2. I will and direct that all my legal and just debts be paid as soon after my death as is practicable.

Item 3. I give and bequeath to my son, William T. Naugle and to my daughter, Eunice Naugle, my home place and the lands owned by me adjoining same, located in Clay County, Mississippi, together with all live stock, crops produced from said land, farm tools, wagons and automobiles, and household and kitchen furniture that I may own at the time of my death, to be used by them for and during their lives. Should either die, then his or her part in said property should revert to the other as long as he or she may live, and it is my desire that they do not mortgage or dispose of said property, and that at their death same to revert to my estate, and to be disposed of as the residue of my estate is disposed of as herein after directed.

Item 4. I will and direct that the residue of my estate be disposed of as follows by my executor herein after named; That all my real estate and personal property, not disposed of in Paragraph Three of my Will be disposed of by my executor to the best advantage for money or its equivalent and the whole residue be divided equally, share and share alike between my children, to-wit: Andrew K. Naugle, Ester N. Connell, Sallie M. Donalson, Inez Ball and Clara Caradine. In this division to be made by my executor, any indebtedness of any of said devisees to my estate shall be accounted for by them and any one indebted to any of the other devisees, such indebtedness shall be paid out of the part going to them.

Having full confidence in the honesty and integrity of my son, Andrew K. Naugle, and knowing that he will do the right thing in the winding up my estate, I hereby nominate and appoint him, Andrew K. Naugle, executor of my estate, and relieve him from making bond as such executor, filing an inventory, or making any report to any courts.

Witness my signature, this the 18th day of October, 1929.

J. B. Naugle

We, the undersigned witnesses to the execution of the above Will, who witnessed same at the request of J. B. Naugle, certify that we saw J. B. Naugle sign said Will, and that we signed it in his presence and in the presence of each other, and that at the time he was more than 21 years of age and of sound and disposing mind and memory.
